As the semester comes to a close and you begin your professional careers, we thought you might enjoy and benefit from the information contained here. It is our way to say "good luck" to you and to wish you success in your search for a teaching position.

A teacher affects eternity: no one knows where his/her influence stops.

The true aim of everyone who aspires to be a teacher should be, not to imprint his own opinion, but to kindle minds.

The mediocre teacher tells. The good teacher explains. The superior teacher demonstrates.
The GREAT TEACHER inspires.

The art of teaching is the art of assisting discovery.

Children are messengers we send to a time we will not see.

School is a building that has four walls – with tomorrow inside.

I touch the future, I teach.

There are three things to remember when teaching: know your stuff, know whom you are stuffing, and then stuff them elegantly.

It is what we learn after we know it all that really counts.

I am not a teacher, but an awakener.

A hundred years from now, it will not matter what my bank account was, the sort of house I lived in or the kind of car I drove.
BUT THE WORLD MAY BE DIFFERENT BECAUSE I WAS IMPORTANT IN THE LIFE OF A CHILD!

Attitude by Charles Swindoll

"The longer I live, the more I realize the impact of attitude on life. Attitude is more important than facts. It is more important than the past, than money, than circumstances, than failures, than successes, than what other people think or say or do. It is more important than appearance, giftedness, or skill. It will make or break a company... a church... a home. The remarkable thing is we have a choice every day regarding the attitude we will embrace for that day. We cannot change our past... we cannot change the inevitable. The only thing we can do is play on the one thing we have, and that is attitude... I am convinced that life is 10% what happens to me and 90% how I react to it."
